of the petitioner is that before the actual transfer order received by the petitioner, he was already releived by order dated 07.10.2003. The grievance of the petitioner is that this transfer order is mala fide and was passed in the back date. The petitioner has been relieved from the duty in violation of the directions issued by the Election Commission of India.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner may be allowed to make representation to respondent No.1 for which the learned Panel Lawyer appearing on behalf of the State/respondents has no objection.

Having heard the learned counsel for parties and having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner is allowed to make representation mentioning all his grievances to respondent No.1 within ten days from today and in turn, respondent No.1 shall decide the representation within sixty days from the date of receipt of the same considering all the grievances of the petitioner in an objective manner with a reasoned order.

With the above directions and observations the petition stands disposed of.

Consequently, M.(W.)P.No.3222/2003 and I.A.No. 10205/2003 also stand disposed of.

Parties are entitled for certified copy of this order.
